

Join us for Summer Session 2018!

Rudolf Steiner College provides a creative educational environment for people of diverse ages and backgrounds who seek a deeper understanding of the challenges of modern life and wish to develop new capacities as a basis for their life's work, for social service, and for cultural renewal.

All our classes and workshops offer unique opportunities to engage with fellow students and practicing teachers from across North America and abroad.

We invite you to join us this summer for an immersive experience devoted to professional development, best practices, personal transformation, and the arts.

Lunches and Snacks

Lunch Packages are available for purchase for most workshops, unless indicated otherwise. Our ingredients are primarily organic and locally sourced, often from our own biodynamic Raphael Garden. Meristem Bakery goods will be available for purchase most mornings. Snacks will be provided during morning and afternoon breaks. Please see the registration site for details on lunch packages available for your workshop(s), and select your choice of regular, vegetarian, or gluten-free meals when registering.

Faculty

Our faculty are the heart of all our workshops. The Summer Team represents an enormous breadth and depth of Waldorf educational experiences in both private and public sectors, teaching children and adults. With backgrounds in the arts, humanities, sciences, and more, they are here to support you as you prepare to meet your students in the coming year. Biographies are listed on the Summer webpage.

Essentials of Waldorf Education: Betty Staley

Participants build a picture of Waldorf education's developmental framework and a related glossary of terminology. Prerequisite for Art of Teaching participants with limited experience in or understanding of Waldorf education.

Art of Teaching Waldorf: Provides an overview of the developmental principles that stand at the heart of Waldorf education and inform the curriculum. The focus is on child development, practical pedagogy and curriculum in each specific grade. Participants will feel prepared for the joys and opportunities of the coming year, with renewed insights into developmental phases, new ideas for classroom activities and tips for practical planning.

Pre-School: Cynthia Aldinger, Stephanie Skinner

Kindergarten: Annie Bosque, Tavia Pagan, Becky Page, Lee Sturgeon-Day

Grades 1-4: Jazmin Aminian, Cale Brandley, Patti Connolly, Rhoda Cortez, Laura Embrey, Justin Ganz, Jennifer Knighton, Monica Marshall, Molly McIntyre-Libby

Grades 5-8: Jazmin Aminian, Cale Brandley, Justin Ganz, Chris Kelly, Monica Marshall, Molly McIntyre-Libby, Ryan Sutton, Isabelle Tabacot, Matt Taylor

The Waldorf Teacher as Naturalist: Rhoda Cortez

Provides teachers the tools to prepare middle-grades students for upper-grades sciences by enlivening classroom experiences, bringing form to the outdoor classroom, and building capacity in children for both individual sensory impressions and collective inquiry.

Exploring Outdoor Kindergarten & Creating Parent-Teacher Partnership:

Annie Bosque

Explore the benefits of spending time outdoors with children and how everyday activities done inside the classroom can be brought outside. Includes activities to deepen understanding and spark creativity around working with and engaging parents.

On-Campus Housing

Rooms on-campus are available in packages specific to each workshop; reservations are made on the registration site. On-campus reservations are filled in the order they are received. Each of the 8 dorm units have 6 single-occupancy rooms. Each unit includes a shared kitchen, eating area, common space, and two bathrooms, all of which are available to all occupants sharing a unit. RSC's housing office can provide a list of local hosts for those interested in staying in a private home (these arrangements are not handled by the housing office). Questions: conf@steinercollege.edu or 916.963.2500.
